

January Activities

- 4th MFA training
- 7th Staff meeting
- 11th Chapter Gathering
- 17th Pasta Challenge
- 18th Breakfast at Cheshire Grill
- 24th Breakfast at Russ' on Alpine
- 25th Breakfast at Cheshire Grill

Howard Stob operated the computer/video what Steve Ayres, Marilyn & Ezra Bostic, Bob Toedebusch and Bob & Jane Ungrey watch the instructional video for CPR

Instructor Gary Williams watches as members get ready to perform CPR

Rodney DeJonge, Farmer, Terri and Harry watch the instructional video

Marilynn & Ezra Bostic watch as Steve Ayers gets ready to perform CPR

Dar Koza with Don & Cindi Reed practicing CPR

Don Reed watching Rodney DeJonge perform CPR

Don Reed Observing Dar Koza perform CPR

Marcia & Harry Emmert with Jan & Bob Ungrey

Marilynn Bostic volunteered to be the victim and be placed in a recovery position

Members enjoying their meal

Marcia Emmert & Mary Cooper

Bob & Jane Ungrey, Harry Emmert, Todd Seger

On January 17th Chapter G members enjoyed a break from the cold winter weather with a pasta cook off at the home of Len & Jan Snyder. Conversation was lively and the food was great!

Ezra Bostic, Dar Koza and Rodney DeJonge

Rodney DeJonge and Jim Hake enjoying a conversation with Bob & Lori Toedebusch

Jane Ungrey & Jan Snyder

Jan Ungrey displaying her first prize for the pasta cook-off contest

Our host, Len Snyder

Steve Cooper

Jim Hake and Marilyn Bostic, winners of second and third prizes in the pasta cook-off

All aboard the Explorer of the Seas

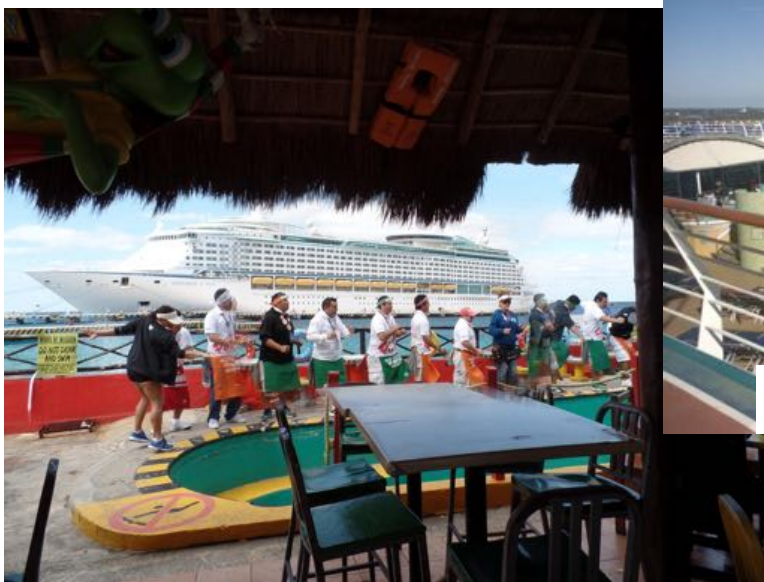

A number of Chapter G members took a break from the Michigan winter weather to enjoy the sunshine and blue waters off the Florida Coast. The last week of January we set sail with over 300 GWRRA Members from throughout the USA.

Ports of call included Freeport, Cozumel, and Grand Bahama Island

Len and Jan Snyder (front) Bob & Jan Ungrey, Scott Klein and Hailey Olsen. Also with our group but not pictured were Jack and Peggy Kline

Explorer of the Sea bar & pool area on deck